

JUAN CANCIO ORTIZ, PRESIDENT
MANUEL GUZMAN RODRIGUEZ, M. D., VICE-PRESIDENT

J. A. McALLISTER, TREAS.
J. J. SIEBERT, SEC'Y.

The Polytechnic Institute of Porto Rico

SAN GERMAN, P. R.

proposes to place in reach of the 200,000 youths of the Island a thoro training in the useful arts and sciences, along with an Academic course extending thru at least High School. The Institute is non-sectarian, but evangelical in principle, imbued with the spirit of Christian charity and liberty.

All students work—

- Those who pay no money work 4½ hours per day
- Those who pay $4 per month work 3 hours per day
- Those who pay $8 per month work 2 hours per day
- Those who pay $10 per month work 1½ hours per day
- Those who pay $12 per month work 1 hour per day

Calculated income from $300,000 will maintain teachers and 384 students in the school.

Rev. JOHN WILLIAM HARRIS, President of Institute,
San German, P. R.

Polytechnic Institute of Porto Rico

IS INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF PORTO RICO

THE TRUSTEES ARE:

- Hon. Geo. R. Colton, Governor of Porto Rico, - Cong.
- Rev. C. L. Thompson, D. D., Secretary Presbyterian Board of Home Missions
- Mr. A. J. Greif, Manager of one of the largest sugar mills of the world, - Cath.
- Mr. George F. Tibbitts, Y. M. C. A. Secretary for West Indies, - Pres.
- Rt. Rev. Jas. H. Van Buren, D. D., Episcopal Bishop of Porto Rico
- Sr. Juan Cancio Ortiz, Ex-Mayor of Lajas, Merchant and Farmer, - Pres.
- Rev. J. A. McAllister, President Presbyterian Theological Training School
- Rev. C. S. Detweiler, Missionary, - Bapt.
- Judge J. J. Siebert, of San German, - Pres.
- Senor Arturo M. Davila, Druggist
- Senor Carlos V. Urrutia, Supervising Principal Public Schools, - Pres.
- Rev. E. E. Wilson, Missionary, - Meth.
- Senor Juan Bautista Soto, Ph. D., Lawyer, - Pres.
- Senor Rafael Arrillaga, Mayor of Anasco
- Rev. E. A. McDonald, Missionary, - Pres.
- Rev. N. H. Huffman, Missionary, - United Breth.
- Senor Manuel Guzman Rodriguez, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, - Pres.
- Rev. E. A. Odell, Missionary, - Pres.
- Rev. J. W. Harris, Missionary, Pres.
- Senor J. Fernando, Rodil, Teacher in Public Schools, - Pres.