June 18, 1921 Patricia begins to work in Institute

The mountain and the valley both breathe of God's love.
The work which began June eighteenth, nineteen hundred twentyone has pages of love and joy and suffering - practical pages like - "Set a watch upon my mouth, O, thou eternal, guard the door of my lips"

Confident pages - "Thou knowest my path - Thou art my help -"

Pages which mark the growth of soul -

Nothing has brought <sup>me</sup> blessing to hill and me than our happy visit in your home. From Dona Mercedes to Diana everything helped us.

We thank you for that as well as for the years which meant so much to you and to Dr. Harris and to the history of the whole Institute.

We love you like a child of our own. We appreciate you with love and gratitude

Eunice Harris
