210 S STREET,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Dear Mr. Harris.

While the Lord is blessing a message to you from I am glad to send you a line of greeting. He would have you new home in Con-ing along. It will be such a delight to you & leave a fitting place to live, the wealthy & truly for more "pi-tiresque" writing will surely touch your lovely brain!

But I fancy you let it go with no regrets.

The friends of San Francisco often & true beauty of that spot.

And I hope some day we can return & stay longer & see every inch of that wonderful island.

We are well here but terribly bored with our work. (By the way you will see an account of it soon in the L. N. J. in the cleavage asked for it.) We keep busy in the Polaris. Last week we had asked all "lonely" civilians to come to the ^{Commodore} for acquaintance - 1200 cases!!! The ^{best} London-Crown & cake for all, ^{had speeches &} entertainment, & they all said they had a grand time. We had merely put a notice in the Newspaper! Best wishes to all.

Cordially from Alice C. Wood.
