

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR
WASHINGTON

February 16, 1937.

Gentlemen:

Secretary Ickes has asked me to thank you for the cordial invitation to be present at the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Polytechnic Institute of Puerto Rico, February twenty-sixth to March second. The Secretary regrets that his plans for the latter part of this month will not permit a trip to Puerto Rico and that he must, therefore, decline.

Sincerely yours,

Harry Slattery,

Personal Assistant to the Secretary.

Polytechnic Institute of Puerto Rico,
San German, Puerto Rico.
