

TWO EAST NINETY-FIRST STREET
NEW YORK
January 30, 1940.

Dear Dr. and Mrs. Harris:

I thank you very much for the lovely calendar you sent me. It is always such a joy to have it, and I appreciate your kind thoughtfulness in sending it to me, more than I can say.

Margaret, you probably know, is in Edinburgh, where she went to welcome her little granddaughter, Elizabeth Carnegie Thomson, who arrived on January 16th. She is a lovely baby, and both she and her dear little mother are doing splendidly. There is great rejoicing in the family. We are hoping Margaret will return the latter part of February. ^{early in March} R

With kindest greetings and good wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

Louise W. Carnegie
