Dear Don:

Thank you so much for your fine letter of June 11. I am most embarrassed at not having written you concerning the receipt of your father's saddle, bridle, spurs, leggins, boots, hat, etc. Something happened when the shipment arrived causing me to delay writing. The items are now in a glass case in the room next to my office where they can be seeing by some of the visitors. Later we hope to have everything placed in a museum.

Your comments concerning the extent to which Inter American University is being mentioned in your area are most gratifying. We are making some progress and we are most thankful. Often when we face very real difficulties I am reminded of the faith and perseverance of your father. This always helps.

Logan expects to start at Trinity University in September. He is very anxious to get to Texas and we are pleased with his choice of a college. It is most kind of you to mention your interest in him. We shall feel better knowing that he is near some of your family.

It is very good to hear from you. We do hope to get to Texas before too long.

Best wishes.

Very sincerely,
