

58 W. 109 St

Invitation.
from Mr. Mitchell

GLEN RIDGE
MAR --
7 -- PM
1920

89
95
Cents
20 1920

Rev. J. W. Harris

156 Fifth Avenue

Room 703.

New York City

EDWARD P. MITCHELL

Ellen Ridge, March 21, 1920.

My dear Mr. Harris:

I am enclosing a clipping of an Editorial in yesterday's paper. I hope the date accords with your scheme of Chronological promotion.

Mr. Mitchell and I are very desirous that you may be able to come out to Ellen Ridge on Tuesday of next week - that is Tuesday, March 30 - to stay over night. She puts that date because it will enable us to have you meet at dinner Dr. Wilson or Mr. Wilson (he is the brother of our church, and an intensely and broad-minded Congregationalist). If that day is Convinced for the visit from you which we are looking forward to eagerly, please give me a line either here or at the Law office. And if so, and you could come on the Kaekawanna train (Montclair branch) leaving the Hoboken station at 3:40 P.M., it would give Mrs. Mitchell a chance to give you a little ride before dinner. In that case she would meet you at the head of the Glen Ridge station steps for the 3:40 train arriving here at 4:13.

With kindest regards from us both,
Yours sincerely,

E. P. Mitchell.

Mrs. J. W. Harris
156 74th Ave.,
New York City.